

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL

Volume 3 Number 2

Edited by Andrzej Cirocki and Alan Maley

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL (EJALTEFL) is a refereed academic publication which aims to disseminate information, knowledge and expertise in the broad area of applied linguistics. Strong preference is given to contributions relating to second language acquisition, foreign language pedagogy, teacher training and classroom innovation.

Volume 3 Number 2 is devoted to the theme of TESOL Teacher Education and Development. It brings together contributions from ten well-respected and influential teacher educators and covers, among others, such topics as:

- teacher creativity.
- providing feedback through technology
- demand-high teaching
- demand-high teaching
- training for the unpredictable
- materials writing principles and processes
- ways of working with teachers
- practice and research-based theory in English teacher development

This provides a valuable source of reference for applied linguists, teacher trainers, materials developers and practitioners in the field of EFL/ESL. It offers readers a deeper insight into current issues, thereby broadening their knowledge and promoting professional development.

Available from booksellers or by subscription (two issues per year).
