

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL

Volume 6 Number 1

Edited by Andrzej Cirocki

The European Journal of Applied Linguistics and TEFL (EJALTEFL) is a refereed academic publication which aims to disseminate information, knowledge and expertise in the broad area of applied linguistics. Strong preference is given to contributions relating to second language acquisition, foreign language pedagogy, teacher training and classroom innovation.

Volume 6 Number 1 comprises ten articles presenting the latest research and scholarship from Belgium, Australia, Iran, Jordan, Japan, the United Kingdom, China, Macau and Thailand.

This provides a valuable source of reference for applied linguists, teacher trainers, materials developers and practitioners in the field of EFL/ESL. It offers readers a deeper insight into current issues, thereby broadening their knowledge and promoting professional development.

Available from booksellers or by subscription (two issues per year).
